March 26, 2018

Greetings from the Division of Academic Affairs.

Kudos and Accolades

- Joseph J. Sabia, professor in the Department of Economics, co-authored with two alumni a new National Bureau of Economic Research paper entitled Do Ban the Box Laws Increase Crime? Click here to learn more.
- A group of 20 elementary, middle or high school students will learn to write, edit and produce their own hardbound books thanks to a grant from the College of Education’s Improving Futures Fund. The project will be part of “Write to Rise,” a new program spearheaded by Katie Sciurba, assistant professor in the School of Teacher Education. Read the full story here.
