

College	File Name	Student Name	Project/Proposal Name	Project Summary	Funding Amount Requested	Notes
ALL	ALL_015	Paige Hernandez	Little White Lie: Film Screening & Reflective Discussion	Little White Lie is a compelling documentary about identity, race, family, and self-realization based on the life of film producer Lacey Schwartz. During Black History Month, I would like to invite Lacey to campus for a film screening/dialogue on identity exploration and "what it means to be black".	$ 4,800.00
ALL	ALL_003	Philip Combiths	Storytelling for Scientists	Storytelling for Scientists is a workshop to train SDSU students to effectively communicate their research to a broader audience. A professional storytelling consultant will guide attendees in incorporating elements of storytelling into accessible science communication narratives.	$ 4,600.00
ALL	ALL_029	Ashley Franklin	2nd Annual Aztec Student Showcase	The Arts & Culture Club (ACC) would like to host its 2nd Annual Aztec Student Showcase in order for student artists and creative thinkers to formally display their work to family, friends, and peers. It will also allow students an opportunity to appreciate and gain awareness of the arts and culture.	$ 3,000.00
ALL	ALL_009	Charlene Holkenbrink-Monk	Praxis in Education Student Conference	This will be a conference discussing the importance of educational theories in the classroom and the way to bridge the gap between classroom practices and theory.	$ 5,000.00	No refreshments/ other items ok in $700 line item
ALL	ALL_005	Eileen Gisler	A Peek into Research in Arts and Sciences	The goals of the proposed project is to inspire freshmen students to conduct research in all areas of study including history and art subjects, and to start networking. To meet those goals, we propose a field trip to the Huntington Library in Pasadena, and one to the SDSU Art Gallery Downtown.	$ 800.00
BUS	BUS_010	Paul Jensen	4th Annual Sports Business Summit	The 4th Annual Sports Business Summit, hosted by the Sports Business Initiative, will be one of the largest student-run sports business conferences in San Diego. This is an educational opportunity for students to learn about business and networking skills needed to pursue a sports business career.	$ 5,000.00
BUS	BUS_006	Lauren Barrett	Blockchain Workshop	As the world shrinks while technology expands, students and professionals alike struggle to keep up; and the next big innovation is blockchain technology. This workshop provides faculty and students the skills and hands-on experience necessary to remain valid and competitive in the business world.	$ 4,253.00
BUS	BUS_012	Jamie Steckbeck	Back to the Basics with Delta Sigma Pi	This is an annual event put on by Delta Sigma Pi and serves as a professional building workshop for students. The professional development comes in the area of resume building, mock interviews, and linkedin workshops.	$ 400.00	No giveaways - Personalized Portfolios removed ($700)
BUS	BUS_007	Joyce Mattingly	Charles W. Lamden School of Accountancy Spring Awards	outstanding students. It provides the opportunity to solidify the relationship between SDSU and the professional community, and showcase the exemplary reputation of SDSU students as future professionals.	$ 1,600.00
BUS	BUS_005	Giovanni Montes	2018 ALPFA Case Study Competition	The 2018 ALPFA Case Study Competition is a project put on by the Association of Latino Professionals For America to allow students to showcase their analytical and public speaking skills.	$ 725.00
BUS	BUS_008	Janet Zhou	FIS Financial Modeling Class	The Finance and Investment Society is requesting $5,000 from the Student Success Fee to support the offering of a financial modeling class. This will benefit all students who have little to no prior understanding of Excel, as Excel is mandatory for many business practices for financial modeling.	$ 5,000.00
CAL	CAL_003	Savannah Schlauderaff	Abolitionist Visions: Mia McKenzie	Mia McKenzie will be giving a talk stemming from her work with Black Girl Dangerous, an online blog dedicated to amplifying the voices of queer people of color, making state violence visible, and addressing the shortcomings of mainstream politics and feminism.	$ 5,000.00
CAL	CAL_021	Edgar Olozagaste	Spanglish and the Future of Spanish-English Bilingualism	MA Spanish students propose to organize an academic panel and an exhibit to explore Spanish-English bilingualism, Spanglish, and their future in the US. Spanish is the most-spoken minority language in the US; however, its presence and use is controversial. These events explore these issues.	$ 5,000.00
CAL	CAL_017	Andrea Alvarado	Undergraduate Research Journal for the College of Arts and Letters	The Undergraduate Research Journal for CAL (URJCAL) is a voluntary, student-run project that seeks to make undergraduate publication more accessible through the compilation of a peer-reviewed academic journal. The journal involves collaboration of students and faculty mentors to edit submissions.	$ 5,000.00
CAL	CAL_026	Sarah Conner	Oral History Panel with Survivor Speakers –Part 2 of 3 of the Phi Alpha Theta Public, Oral, and Digital (P.O.D.) History Series	A small panel of Holocaust survivors is proposed to fulfill three goals: to create an experience in global learning for the SDSU student body, to demonstrate the nature of oral history through live primary sources, and to engage students in courses about Holocaust and genocide history.	$ 2,076.00
CAL	CAL_020	Stephanie M Loney	Landmark Lecture Panel on Scientific Rhetoric	As graduate students in the Department of Rhetoric and Writing Studies (RWS), we are applying for funds to invite Professor Blake Scott to join Professor Jordynn Jack as a guest speaker at our annual Landmark Lecture Series (2018).	$ 1,453.00
CAL	CAL_028	Sarah Conner	Visit the Museum of Tolerance for Practical Application of P.O.D. History- Part 3 of 3 of the Phi Alpha Theta Public, Oral, and Digital History Series	A trip to the Museum of Tolerance will engage students from a range of fields to explore, both thematically and methodologically, oral history and Digital Humanities in public history. The broad scope of the museum's exhibits will engage future educators, researchers, and humanitarians alike.	$ 2,610.00
CAL	CAL_022	Susanne A Forrayi	Young French Cinema film festival presented by le Cercle Français	Hosting a mini-french film festival the weekend of December 7th, 8th, and 9th 2017, featuring French films presented by UniFrance films and the Cultural Services Department of the French Embassy. Young French Cinema offers a selection of today's best French and Francophone films and filmmakers.	$ 2,150.00
CAL	CAL_015	Elizabeth Allison	English Graduate Student Symposium	The English Graduate Student Symposium will draw together creative writers, digital humanists, and literature scholars. Through a series of presentations and panels, this Symposium will showcase original creative work and highlight the vitality of literary scholarship at San Diego State University.	$ 2,655.00	No catering/food other items ok in $1200 line item
CAL	CAL_025	Sarah Conner	Oral and Digital History Workshop with the USC Shoah Foundation - Part 1 of 3 of the Phi Alpha Theta Public, Oral, and Digital (P.O.D.) History Series	A workshop conducted at SDSU with the USC Shoah Foundation will give students skills in public and oral history using methods and tools in Digital Humanities. Shoah Foundation workshops attract students interested in history, education, and other CAL disciplines thus engaging a broad student base.	$ 1,913.00
CAL	CAL_008	amee imlay.	2018 Sociology Graduate Student Conference.	A student organized and led conference that explores capitalism as a system of economic organization and the relationship between capitalism and culture and individuals. The conference will be held on April 14, 2018.	$ 2,819.00
CAL	CAL_037	Sarah Conner	Public History Careers Workshop	The History Careers Workshop series will introduce students majoring in history or other humanistic research and writing based majors to alternative fields of employment. These careers are integral in the advancement of literacy and academia outside of the traditional routes of law and teaching.	$ 2,600.00	Removed catering $547.50. Budget does not add up to $4000.00. New budget $2600
CAL	CAL_006	Timothy Burnette	Getty Villa Trip	We've been invited to visit the Getty Villa on April 21st with a free guided tour for up to 50 students, and will allow students to see the entirety of the Villa and ask questions to people who know the exhibits and gardens closely.	$ 1,300.00
EDU	EDU_007	Christina Waters	Trauma-Informed Care Training	Harmonium's Executive Director, Rosa Ana Lozado, will deliver two presentations to the San Diego State community around Trauma Informed Practices. Presentation will be applicable for students, direct service providers, and community members.	$ 1,650.00
EDU	EDU_008	Al Schleicher	Critical Language Policy Forum	Critical Language Policy Forum is the inaugural policy forum hosted by students of the Department of Dual Language and English Learner Education. The forum is designed to bring together SDSU students, alumni, faculty, and the larger university community.	$ 1,030.00
EDU	EDU_014	Laura Ensberg	CTA Committee Member Gretel Rodriguez: A Lecture on the Importance of Social Advocacy and Unionism	An informative lecture on the importance of social advocacy and being a part of a union as it relates to education and social justice. Many educators choose to lead advocacy up to elected leaders but the power in addressing broader issues of equity and racial justice is in collective action.	$ 2,000.00

EDU	EDU_011	Elvia Murga	The World Through Hip Hop Workshop	The World Through Hip Hop workshop will be a two hour workshop with guest speaker Dr. Travis Heath. The workshop aims to showcase how Hip Hop can be used to facilitate discussions about social issues, diversity, politics, etc. and to help us learn about our own experiences and relationships.	$ 4,200.00
EDU	EDU_012	Angel Rocha	Professional Development Workshop Series	We want to send four of our students from the MA in Student Affairs program to the NASPA conference. This year the conference will be in Philadelphia from March 3rd to the 7th. After returning they will be tasked with facilitating a workshop series where they will share their experience to others.	$ 3,290.00
EDU	EDU_010	Elaina Baldwin	"Nothing About Us Without Us": Authentic Narratives of the Disability Experience in Society	Our project is centered around recognizing and honoring the amazing 15 presenters who come to share their disability experience with our class. These presenters do not receive monetary compensation and the students would love to be able to show their appreciation through the Student Success Fee.	$ 3,000.00
ENG	ENG_018	Luke Tabor	Enriching the experience of engineering students involved in water related projects.	The American Water Works Association, proposes to prepare for--and participate in the 2018 ASCE Pacific Southwest Conference Environmental Competition with the intentions of providing environmental students hands on water treatment experience.	$ 2,000.00
ENG	ENG_006	Ricardo Montes	Biomedical Engineering Society Seminar Series	The Biomedical Engineering Society Seminar Series will consist of a panel of industry professionals. The BMES Chapter will ask each of our guests about their professional careers. At the end, we will have an open floor for questions and networking.	$ 1,249.00
HHS	HHS_027	Dominique Hale	Trauma Informed Care Across the Lifespan: A Workshop for Social Workers	The vision behind this project is to create a bridge for two local entities who have yet to fully intersect--The Institute for Violence, Abuse & Trauma (IVAT) and SDSU Social Work students--to meet and connect for a morning of leading edge teaching, practical training, and professional networking.	$ 1,505.00
HHS	HHS_012	Sam Put	LGBT+ Voices: A Diversity Experience	LGBT+ Voices will be a diversity seminar with a panel of several LGBT+ identified San Diego State University students and faculty, and local community members. Each panelist will share a personal, short story about life lessons and their journey to acceptance.	$ 1,150.00
HHS	HHS_011	Brooke Wickman	Southern California Food Industry Conference and Suppliers' Night Expo	Student Nutrition Organization members are typically aspiring dietitians. Opportunities for food science exposure have been limited. This project will allow twenty students to develop a food product, attend the Food Industry Conference, and showcase their product at the Suppliers Night Expo.	$ 4,460.00
HHS	HHS_020	Caitlin Cole	Healthcare Leadership Professional Development Series	The Healthcare Leadership Professional Development Series will provide graduate students the opportunity to develop skills in critical thinking, strategic analysis and public speaking. Workshops dedicated to building skills that will make students stand out in the workplace.	$ 3,500.00
HHS	HHS_009	Shannon Doolittle	Speech, Language, and Hearing Sciences Guest Speaker Event	Since 2003, the Student Academy of Audiology has invited internationally-recognized speakers to present their leading research to students of all levels, faculty, and professional members of the community through the generous support of IRA funds provided by the College of Health and Human Sciences.	$ 2,000.00
HHS	HHS_023	Isabella Pregozen	Athletic Training Education Program Alumni Networking Event	The primary goal of this proposal is to create an opportunity to connect athletic training students with alumni professionals in the field and expand their network into the job setting. A secondary goal is host a Speaker Panel at this event to discuss the advancement in the profession.	$ 1,250.00
HHS	HHS_001	Shannon O'Donnell	Excellence in SLHS Student Research	The goal for this proposed project is directly in line with the San Diego State University mission to have students, at all levels, be involved in research. This proposal is requesting travel support for students to independently present at a national conference.	$ 5,000.00
PSFA	PSFA_033	Lesi Mei	Alexander Workshops in School of Music and Dance in Spring 2018	This project consists of a series of Alexander Technique workshops by Alexander Specialist Eileen Troberman, in the School of Music and Dance in Spring 2018 semester.	$ 4,227.00
PSFA	PSFA_026	Taylor Hardie	Artist to Artist Studio Exchange	Artist to Artist Studio Exchange (AASE) is a series of master classes and public lectures hosted monthly by guest artists. The series will bring professional Dance artists in the region to SDSU, to provide students the opportunity to intimately engage with professionals from the field.	$ 2,458.00
SCI	SCI_012	Christopher Knight	MEBSA Spring Science Communication Series	MEBSA proposes to host a Spring Science Communication Series to train undergraduates, graduates, and faculty how to discuss and disseminate research beyond the sphere of scientists. We aim to expand SDSU research impacts by engaging the public and contributing to science-based decision making.	$ 4,580.00
FUNDING CATEGORY 1: up to $5000					$ 118,303.00
ALL	ALL_018	Damian Ruiz	SDSU Student Diversity, Inclusion and Intercultural Symposium: Unity Across Cultures	developing wide-reaching campus initiatives that encourage inclusivity and diminish bias and discrimination. This full-day summit will offer several themes that will promote SDSU's Diversity initiatives.	$ 7,124.00	No giveaways - Symposium Bags-Removed $1876 from line item
ALL	ALL_013	Mireya Mateo	Undocu Series: A Conversation on the lives and futures of the Undocumented Community	The lives of undocumented residents are shrouded in stereotypes and misinformation. This project highlights the implications of the change in federal policies through four events that humanize, explain, and predict what today's anti-immigrant policies will mean for all of us in the coming years.	$ 12,610.00
ALL	ALL_007	Ruta Gebreyesus	The 23rd Annual Black Solidarity Conference at Yale University	Every February Yale University hosts The Annual Black Solidarity Conference. The event takes place on Yale's campus, in New Haven, Connecticut. The event is filled with students from varying ethnicities unifying to analyze/discuss the variety of issues that affect the Black/Afro-Diasporic community.	$ 11,600.00
ALL	ALL_017	Christian Holt	The Afrikan Student Union (ASU): Attending the Afrikan Black Coalition Conference at San Francisco State from January 12 - January 15, 2018	By attending this conference, students will be able to educate members of the SDSU community through programs in cultural awareness, leadership, intersectionality, diversity, inclusion and utilizing resources. This Conference is comprised of different Afrikan/Black Student Unions statewide.	$ 12,740.00	Budget Rounded
ALL	ALL_020	Ruta Gebreyesus	Alicia Garza: Speaker at The First Black Graduate Reception	The proposed funds will be allocated towards having Alicia Garza as a keynote speaker at The First Annual Black Graduation Reception for the Class of 2018. The Black Graduation Reception is an event that I am planning to implement during Spring 2018. This event will be open for all SDSU students.	$ 15,000.00
ALL	ALL_001	Tara Block	Advancing Women in Public Policy Leadership	This project proposes the funding of ten San Diego State students and the respective faculty advisor for the purpose of attending the Women in Public Policy seminar hosted by the Public Leadership Education Network (PLEN). The conference takes place in Washington D.C. from 1/9/18 - 1/13/18.	$ 14,718.00
BUS	BUS_004	Madelaine Morelli	American Marketing Association International Collegiate Conference	The 40th annual AMA International Collegiate Conference holds remarkable opportunities for exposure into the field of Marketing. There are over 1700 Marketing professionals and students from other university chapters to gain professional development, hands-on learning, and unique industry knowledge.	$ 15,225.00
BUS	BUS_003	Cyrus Mostashari	SDSU Venture Capitalist Investment Competition Team	We are requesting funds to support SDSU's team to travel to Boulder, CO for the 2017/18 Venture Capital Investment Competition, against 70 universities. This opportunity helps students learn about venture capital investments through real world experiences in a team setting as they prepare for event.	$ 5,150.00
BUS	BUS_013	Joyce Mattingly	Beta Alpha Psi 2018 Western Regional Meeting	The Western Regional Meeting is designed to provide participants the opportunity to present projects, developed over five months, to professionals from the world's largest accounting firm, Deloitte, the world's largest association representing ethical standards, AICPA, and other professional leaders.	$ 5,477.00
CAL	CAL_018	Tyler Linvill	Homeboy Industries: Community Healing through Social Enterprise	Homeboy Industries is a world-renown gang intervention organization. The present project will bring SDSU students to the Homeboy Industries headquarters in Los Angeles, CA. For the second part of our project, we will have the organization's founder, Father Greg Boyle, speak on campus.	$ 17,900.00
CAL	CAL_024	Joselyn Shaily Rodriguez	Power to the People: Workshop of Italian Hip Hop Culture by Amir Issaa and Flavio Zocchi	Power to the People will offer different levels of interaction with Italian Hip Hop to students in all majors with guidance from Amir Issaa and Flavio Zocchi through lectures, workshops, discussion, and film.	$ 8,208.00
CAL	CAL_011	Jennifer Beckner	Rompiendo Muros, Construyendo Puentes. Breaking Walls, Building Bridges: A Cultural Exchange	A two-part project to enrich cultural understanding through a cross border exchange. First, a guided bus tour of Tijuana for SDSU students. Second, an on-campus cultural night with music, dance, and art from across the border. We hope to foster deeper comprehension of the US-Mexico border region.	$ 7,895.00

EDU	EDU_003	Jenna Hanson	DLE Student Organization: ATDLE (Association of Two-way and Dual Language Education) conference	The DLE Student Organization is asking for funds to attend the ATDLE (Association of Two-way and Dual Language Education) conference February 1-3. This conference will give students the chance to network and learn how to better serve needs of the linguistically and culturally diverse students.	$ 17,255.00
ENG	ENG_010	Dylan Ramirez	American Society of Mechanical Engineers Student Design Competition	undergraduate students to compete in a regional robotics competition with the objective of strengthening skills learned in the classroom by challenging our member's creativity and technical design skills.	$ 6,667.00
HHS	HHS_022	Irina Potapova	Fourth Annual Speech, Language and Hearing Awareness and Information Day (SAID)	Professional development events for students in Speech, Language and Hearing Sciences and peers in related fields (e.g., Education, Public Health, Physical Therapy). The project includes a professional mentoring event and our fourth annual Speech, Language and Hearing Awareness and Information Day.	$ 7,954.00
HHS	HHS_025	Brittany Wood	Positive Sexuality Series	This is a four-part series centered on the theme of promoting safe, inclusive, and positive sexual health and sexuality, helping students expand their awareness and knowledge of safer sex, body positivity, and diverse sexual orientations and gender identities.	$ 15,934.00
HHS	HHS_005	Diane Guerrero	Speech Language Pathology CSHA Convention	The 2018 CSHA Convention will be held in Sacramento, CA, March 22-25, 2018. We are requesting $14,100 to defray the student registration fee of $125, airfare, and hotel costs for 20 undergraduate, graduate, and doctoral students to attend the CSHA Convention.	$ 14,100.00
HHS	HHS_002	Victoria Kapper	San Diego State University School of Social Work All School Day	San Diego State University (SDSU) School of Social Work (SSW) All School Day (ASD) is geared toward highlighting relevant social justice issues. This year's topic will address social work with border communities with a focus on detention, deportation and the resulting mental health issues.	$ 10,069.00
HHS	HHS_019	Sofia Palomas	2018 SDSU Distinguished Cancer Series: Innovations in Cancer Disparities Research	I propose a series of three presentations by experts in cancer disparities research that will bring together a diverse audience of SDSU students, faculty, researchers, alumni, and community members. It builds upon the success of the SDSU Cancer Speaker Series funded by the 2016 Student Success Fee.	$ 10,950.00
HHS	HHS_026	Brooke Wickman	California Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics Annual Conference & Expo	The Student Nutrition Organization (SNO) of SDSU strives to provide members with opportunities for professional development. Most SNO members are aspiring dietitians, so we would like to send thirty SDSU nutrition students to the 2018 California Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics Conference & Expo.	$ 16,532.00
HHS	HHS_013	CJ Pagarion	San Diego State University Tackles Rape Culture	We are organizing two sexual assault prevention presentations this spring to combat rape culture on campus. We will be inviting trained sexual assault educators from Sex Signals and Speak About It. They each tackle the issue of sexual violence but focus on different components of rape culture.	$ 14,000.00
HHS	HHS_008	Mikayla Borchin	National Public Health Week at SDSU	The Public Health Campaign Week will be held from April 2-8th, 2018. The final arrangements with community partners and guests speakers will take place in January. We will start spreading awareness and promoting the events in February and March leading up to Public Health Week.	$ 20,000.00
HHS	HHS_016	Lauren Whited	CATA 8th Annual CATA Clinical Symposium/Hit the Hill	CATA, the California Athletic Trainers' Association mission is to advance, encourage, and improve the athletic training profession in all its phases. The main goal of CATA is to require state licensure of all athletic trainers.	$ 12,900.00
PSFA	PSFA_007	Kailey Chacko	Factory Seconds Brass Trio	Factory Seconds Brass Trio from the Cleveland Orchestra, will spend a day in residence at the SDSU School of Music. Factory Seconds will perform instrumental masterclasses for trumpet, horn and trombone, a chamber music masterclass and a concert in which students from SDSU will also perform.	$ 8,543.00	Budget Rounded
PSFA	PSFA_004	Llewelyn Labio	Society of Communication and Leadership	The School of Communication ranks in the top ten of communication master's programs in the country. Student Success Fee funds would improve graduate student training with: a scholarly colloquium series, travel to an academic conference, and an alumni networking mixer.	$ 18,800.00
PSFA	PSFA_015	Katrina St. Aubin	Guerrilla Girls: Activism and Art Through a Feminist Lens	This three-part event consists of a multi-media performance and lecture by the world famous feminist art collective Guerrilla Girls, a Q&A, and a 30 participant - Guerrilla Girls lead workshop, where students will produce their own activism driven artworks.	$ 15,205.00
PSFA	PSFA_041	Jones von Jonestein	Perspectives Lecture Series	Perspectives is a lecture series featuring 5 prominent artists who engage in activism, performance and community engagement. Each artist will be invited to campus for 2 days during which time they will lecture, meet with grads for critiques and lead a performance, workshop or demonstration.	$ 18,150.00	No payment for student assistant $400 line item, other items ok
PSFA	PSFA_032	Lesi Mei	Rebecca Penneys Piano Festival 2018 mini - Pianists career workshop	Six piano major students, in School of Music and Dance, will travel to Rebecca Penneys Piano Festival (RPPF) Mini 2018 on January 2nd-7th, 2018, at St. Petersburg, Florida. The RPPF-Mini an intense short course designed to develop pianists' job and care skill-set.	$ 10,410.00
PSFA	PSFA_012	Jayson Resto	Campanile Music Festival	The Campanile Music Festival works to bring artists to SDSU for one week. During that time, the artists will engage with students in a series of masterclasses, chamber music readings, open rehearsals, and concerts.	$ 19,350.00
PSFA	PSFA_023	Ava Anderson	SDSU TTF Goes Viral! Alien Coma Webseries	Alien Coma is a webseries involving the collaboration of two programs, TFM and Theatre. The webseries is designed to enhance undergraduate and graduate learning and to create future career opportunities, while giving them a professional production experience.	$ 12,500.00
PSFA	PSFA_036	Leslie Shershow	SDSU's 3D Design Symposium	SDSU's 3D Design Symposium will consist of a series of lectures, workshops and individual critiques from experienced 3D art and design professionals. The 3D Design Symposium will provide our student body with a unique learning experience that will enhance success as SDSU representatives.	$ 19,373.00
PSFA	PSFA_020	Laray Egea-Saez	American College Dance Association Regional Conference	This project will facilitate the attendance of 20 dance majors at ACDA's Regional Conference. Students will train, perform, and network intensively at the national level. Choreography from SDSU will be adjudicated by world renowned artists at this equivalent of the Super Bowl of university dance.	$ 13,715.00
SCI	SCI_015	Holly Norman	Enabling SDSU's Women to Become Scientists	To enable the women at SDSU to be competitive in this male-dominated field, we would like to have the Women in Science Society members attend conferences to see other women who have succeeded in the field, learn how to network, and build their resume at a higher rate than their male counterparts.	$ 13,800.00
SCI	SCI_002	Grace Wells	Careers in Science Seminar Series	Guest speakers representing various scientific career trajectories will be invited to give a seminar talk. Graduate students, and senior undergraduates will have the opportunity to expand their professional network and explore different career paths through direct interaction with the speaker.	$ 9,470.00
SCI	SCI_017	Waqas Kayani	SDSU Aztec Pre-Health Conference	The purpose of the SDSU Aztec Pre-Health Conference, formerly known as the Catch the Wave to Success Pre-Health Conference, is to educate and better prepare pre-health students for a career in healthcare.	$ 8,900.00
Funding Category 2: $5001-$20,000					$ 448,224.00
ALL	ALL_030	Ketan Patel	Graduate Student Travel Fund	Original and archival research are central to graduate student development. In most fields, these activities involve travel to collect data and/or present the results at professional conferences. Competitive travel awards are a tremendously successful use of SSF funds each year.	$ 30,000.00
ALL	ALL_014	Alexandra Toure	Faculty Lead Spring Break New Orleans	Study-abroad experiences will remain a privilege of a few. The U.S. offers tremendous diversity of cultures, social classes and religions. Our project helps students take advantage of such diversity of experiences available through community engagement in communities in the United States.	$ 30,500.00
ALL	ALL_006	Christopher Mabry	Peoples Economic Action Summit	The Peoples Economic Action Summit is a minority focused 1 day conference centered on educating and empowering disenfranchised groups to invest and develop within their own communities.	$ 50,167.00	No food/Serving utensils removed ($4850)
CAL	CAL_027	Fernanda Vega	Junot Diaz lecture and creative writing workshop	Author and professor Junot Diaz will give a lecture to the general student population and a creative writing workshop about the importance of positioning comparative literature and cultural studies texts at the foreground of the contemporary political climate.	$ 26,750.00

CAL	CAL_038	Leah Hails	Archaeological Field School at the Nate Harrison site - Palomar Mountain, San Diego County, California	Students will survey, excavate and research the history of the first African American homesteader, Nate Harrison, in San Diego. For six days, students will learn and become proficient at survey, excavation, photography, mapping and other archaeological methods.	$ 36,000.00	Equipment needs to remain in department
EDU	EDU_009	Damian Ruiz	3rd Annual Valuing Diversity Workshop Series: Building Community through Diversity	Our Valuing Diversity Workshop Series: Building Community through Diversity provides the opportunity for SDSU students to obtain an understanding of diversity, culture and inclusion while also developing their cultural awareness and exploring the dynamics of power and privilege and its effects.	$ 34,140.00
ENG	ENG_013	Karajo Kafka	Mechatronics	The Mechatronics Project gives students real-life project experience through the development of an Autonomous Underwater Vehicle for the International RoboSub Competition. This project involves over 50 students including several Engineering majors, as well as Computer Science and Business.	$ 60,000.00
ENG	ENG_003	Kian Sepehrar	Society of Automotive Engineers - Aztec Baja	The Society of Automotive Engineers (SAE) - Baja, is an international organization that challenges 100+ university student-teams every year to design, build and race a 10hp off-road buggy. Every school is restricted to build their car with the same unmodified engine and 115-page SAE rulebook.	$ 50,467.00	Equipment needs to be verified prior to purchasing and budget rounded.
ENG	ENG_005	Eric Johnson	IEEE Mini Projects, Hackathon, Rising Stars/CES Leadership and Design Conferences	The Institute of Electrical and Electronic Engineers Student Branch (IEEE) would like to run a number of projects and send students to a Regional Development and Design Conferences (Rising Stars/CES) to help promote a lifelong learning in the electrical engineering field.	$ 23,268.00
ENG	ENG_011	William Chhit	Aztec Electric Racing's Next Generation Vehicle	Aztec Electric Racing is an experience set on integrating classroom knowledge with hands-on familiarity in order to prepare students for the challenges, expectations, and situations of their future fields. Our ingenuity will be tested against the the very best schools and we intend to finish first.	$ 29,576.00
ENG	ENG_015	Mariana Angel	Aztec Racing Formula SAE Team Build Budget	Aztec Racing Formula SAE intends on designing and manufacturing a race car, which will be entered into an international collegiate design and business competition where it will compete against 80 international teams, many of which have sizable financial backing.	$ 52,000.00
ENG	ENG_001	Jenna McGuigan	SDSU Rocket Project	The San Diego State University Rocket Project (SDSU-RP) is an extracurricular organization within the SDSU College of Engineering, specifically the Department of Aerospace Engineering. The SDSU-RP gives students real-world experience building, testing and launching rockets and their subsystems.	$ 75,000.00	Students can only build with liquid fuels, not solid fuels.
ENG	ENG_020	Madison King	SDSU Design Build Fly	Design, Build, Fly's designs an experimental RC aircraft, competing against top engineering programs in an international competition. The contest provides real-world aircraft design experience and gives students the opportunity showcase their aerospace knowledge.	$ 27,420.00	Competition Polos budget should not exceed $1000 -- Food/Lodging needs adjustment
ENG	ENG_016	Ryan Sipple	Associated Schools of Construction Region 6 & 7 2017 Student Competition	The Associated Schools of Construction (ASC) Reno Competition is an annual event that represents the highest standard of construction management among college students in the United States.	$ 20,195.00
ENG	ENG_019	Luis Martinez	American Society of Civil Engineers: Concrete Canoe, Steel Bridge, Geo-Wall Team.	The Pacific Southwest Conference is hosted every collegiate year. SDSU ASCE and 18 other universities teams compete in the design, construction, and testing of a steel bridge, concrete canoe and a GeoWall. These projects aim to enhance learning and are good practices in their field of interest.	$ 66,826.00
HHS	HHS_003	Allison Granzella	Doctorate of Physical Therapy (DPT) Student Attendance of Annual Physical Therapy Conference	This project will provide 70 students the opportunity to attend the Combined Sections Meeting in order to present research posters, promote student professional growth and networking opportunities, and continue to establish the SDSU DPT program as a premier institution for education and research.	$ 64,800.00
HHS	HHS_024	Nidhi Desai	Aztec Adaptive Sports Showcase	The Aztec Adaptive Sports Showcase is a campus wide event organized by the Aztec Adaptive Sports Student Organization. It will demonstrate the elite level of play people with physical disabilities compete at and the potential impact of an adaptive sports program at San Diego State University.	$ 25,524.00
HHS	HHS_010	Benjamin Schumacher	SDSU Public Health Speaker Series	This series is a three-part series where SDSU Graduate School of Public Health alumni and influential professionals in public health share the vision of their work. Students and the surrounding campus community will learn about current public health challenges and relevant career options.	$ 87,500.00
HHS	HHS_007	Claudia Gonzalez	Extending learning opportunities for future School-Based Social Work Professionals – 21st Annual School Social Work Association of America Conference	SASSW will send 25 social work students to the National SSWAA Conference in March 2018 in Columbus, OH to learn and network in the national professional field. Upon return will host a workshop to share their experiences with fellow students promoting peer mentorship and academic development.	$ 30,500.00
PSFA	PSFA_019	Veronika Alter	SDSU Connection- Great Wall String Quartet and SDSU Live	The SDSU Connection- Great Wall String Quartet and SDSU Live will bring in guest performers and lecturers from around the world, exposing SDSU students to perspectives from professors and performers from the most prestigious universities and symphonies.	$ 35,200.00
PSFA	PSFA_003	Kevin Hernandez	San Diego Guitar Festival 2018	The project will enhance academic and professional experience for a multidisciplinary team of students who collaborate to produce the San Diego Guitar Festival 2018, featuring performances by world-class concert artists, masterclasses, workshops and lectures, held at SDSU School of Music and Dance.	$ 30,600.00
PSFA	PSFA_038	Andrea Schlientz	American Planning Association National Conference	The Master of City Planning program's state recognized Planning Student Organization's top students will attend the 2018 American Planning Association's National Planning Conference in New Orleans, LA from April 21st to the 24th. These students will return with new knowledge for the MCP program.	$ 25,290.00
SCI	SCI_004	Julie Ton-Vuong	2018 Western Psychology Association Convention	The Western Psychological Association's annual convention will be in Portland, Oregon, where students and professionals will congregate to discuss/present current research and network. We hope to give psychology students the opportunity to attend to develop their passion for psychological research.	$ 46,750.00
			Funding Category 3: $20,001 and above		$ 958,473.00
			Total Amount Requested		$ 1,525,000.00
			Total Available in Funding		$ 1,525,000.00	